Presents

Grant Writing 500

Fire & EMS Edition

Come learn the 4 Rights of Grants!

For beginning writers to experienced writers

- Covers all aspects of grant pursuit including:
 - General concepts of grant writing and grant programs
 - Where to find grants
 - How to perform pre-application research
 - How to perform organizational assessments
 - How to figure out what the grant maker wants to see (needs statements, project goals, measurable results, etc)
 - How to argue effectively in narratives
 - And so much more we don't have the room to list it all...
- Will also include a free analysis of a past grant application written for any attending organization willing to have it reviewed as a part of the presentation (must be received 10 days prior to the application period to be included).
- Hand-outs and lunch will be provided

$250 for the 1st person from an organization, $150 each additional person from the same organization

Hosted by North Monroe FD at:

- Fax this form and a copy of your payment check to Vickers Consulting Services, Inc at: 866-290-5082. Checks can then be given to the above local contact or brought the day of the workshop.
- Registration is first come, first serve. If you wish, you can register online, and then mail your payment to either Vickers Consulting Services, Inc or the contact listed above once your registration has been confirmed
- Once you are confirmed as an attendee, you will be contacted about sending a grant application to Vickers Consulting Services, Inc so that we may review it prior to the seminar (optional). You may choose any past, present, or future project from your department. Only one (1) application will be reviewed per organization.
- Seating capacities vary by location. If the location is already full we will attempt to relocate or add dates but no guarantees can be made for either option.
- A minimum of twenty (20) attendees is required for the seminar to be held. If this is not met, the seminar will be cancelled or rescheduled.
- If the seminar is cancelled, all payments will be reimbursed in full. If you register by mail and the seminar is full, you can either request an alternate date/location, or we will give you a full refund.
- If we have not scheduled a seminar in your area and you wish to host a seminar of your own, send an email with a location and date to: info@vickersconsultingservices.com. Because of scheduling limitations, not all requests will be able to be filled. We will honor requests on a first come, first serve basis.
- For directions or information about local facilities (hotels, motels) please call or email the above listed contact.
- All attendees are responsible for their own conduct while in attendance. Any damages caused by attendees will be the sole responsibility of the attendee and/or their organization. Your registration to attend is understood to be acceptance of these Guidelines.
